

OPUS III
JOHN BOWNE
HIGH SCHOOL
Flushing, New York

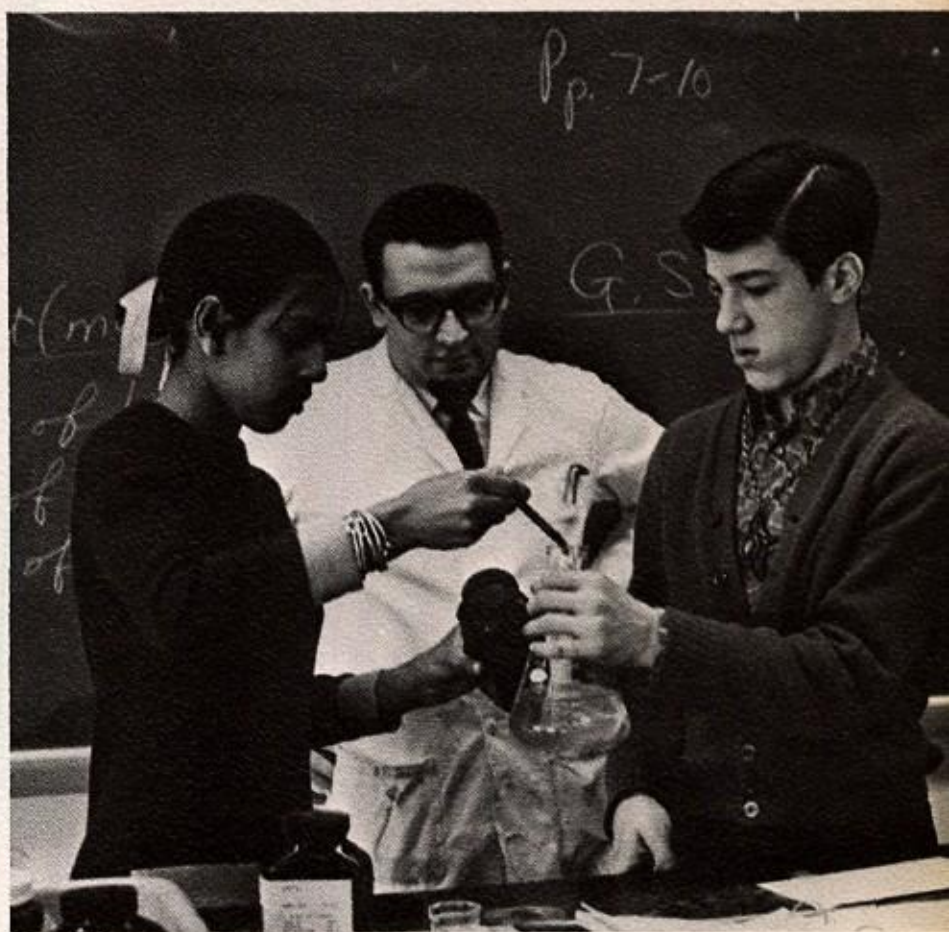

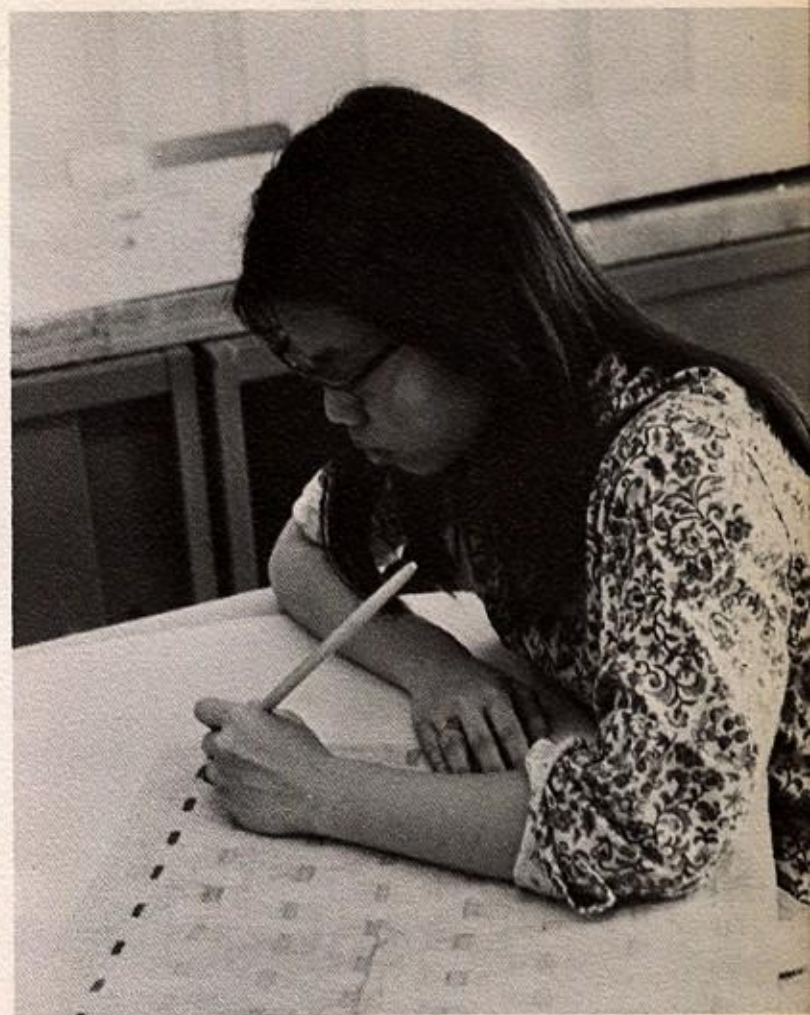

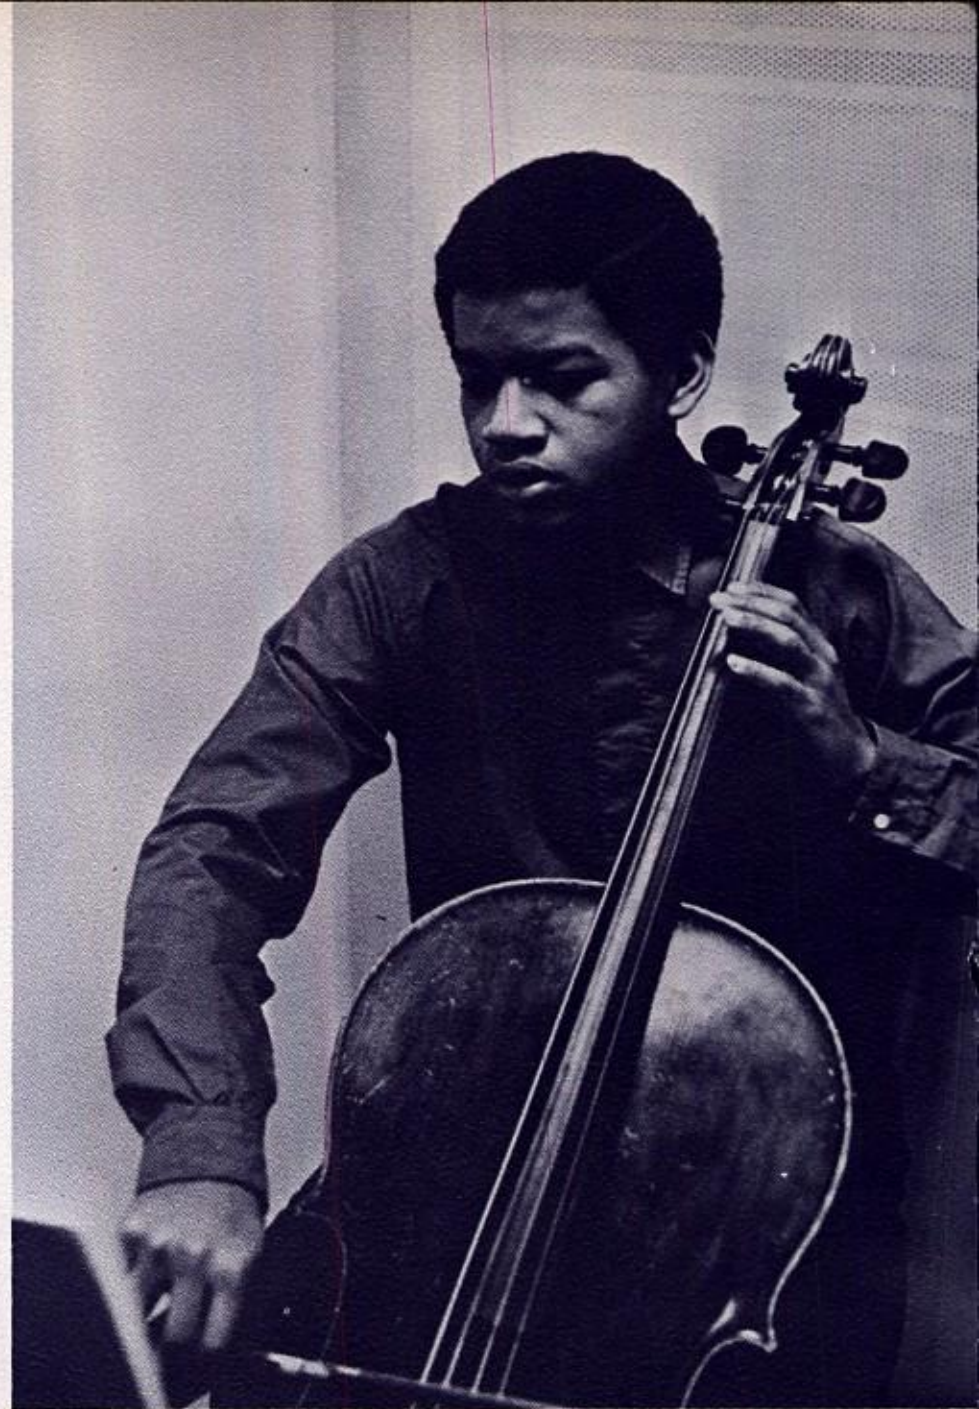

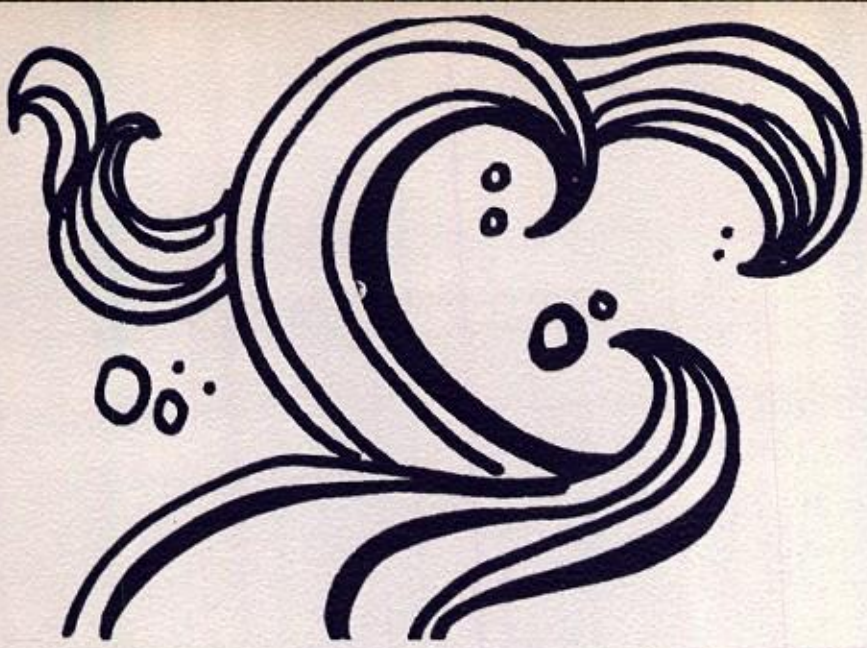

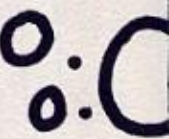

Busy, busy hands

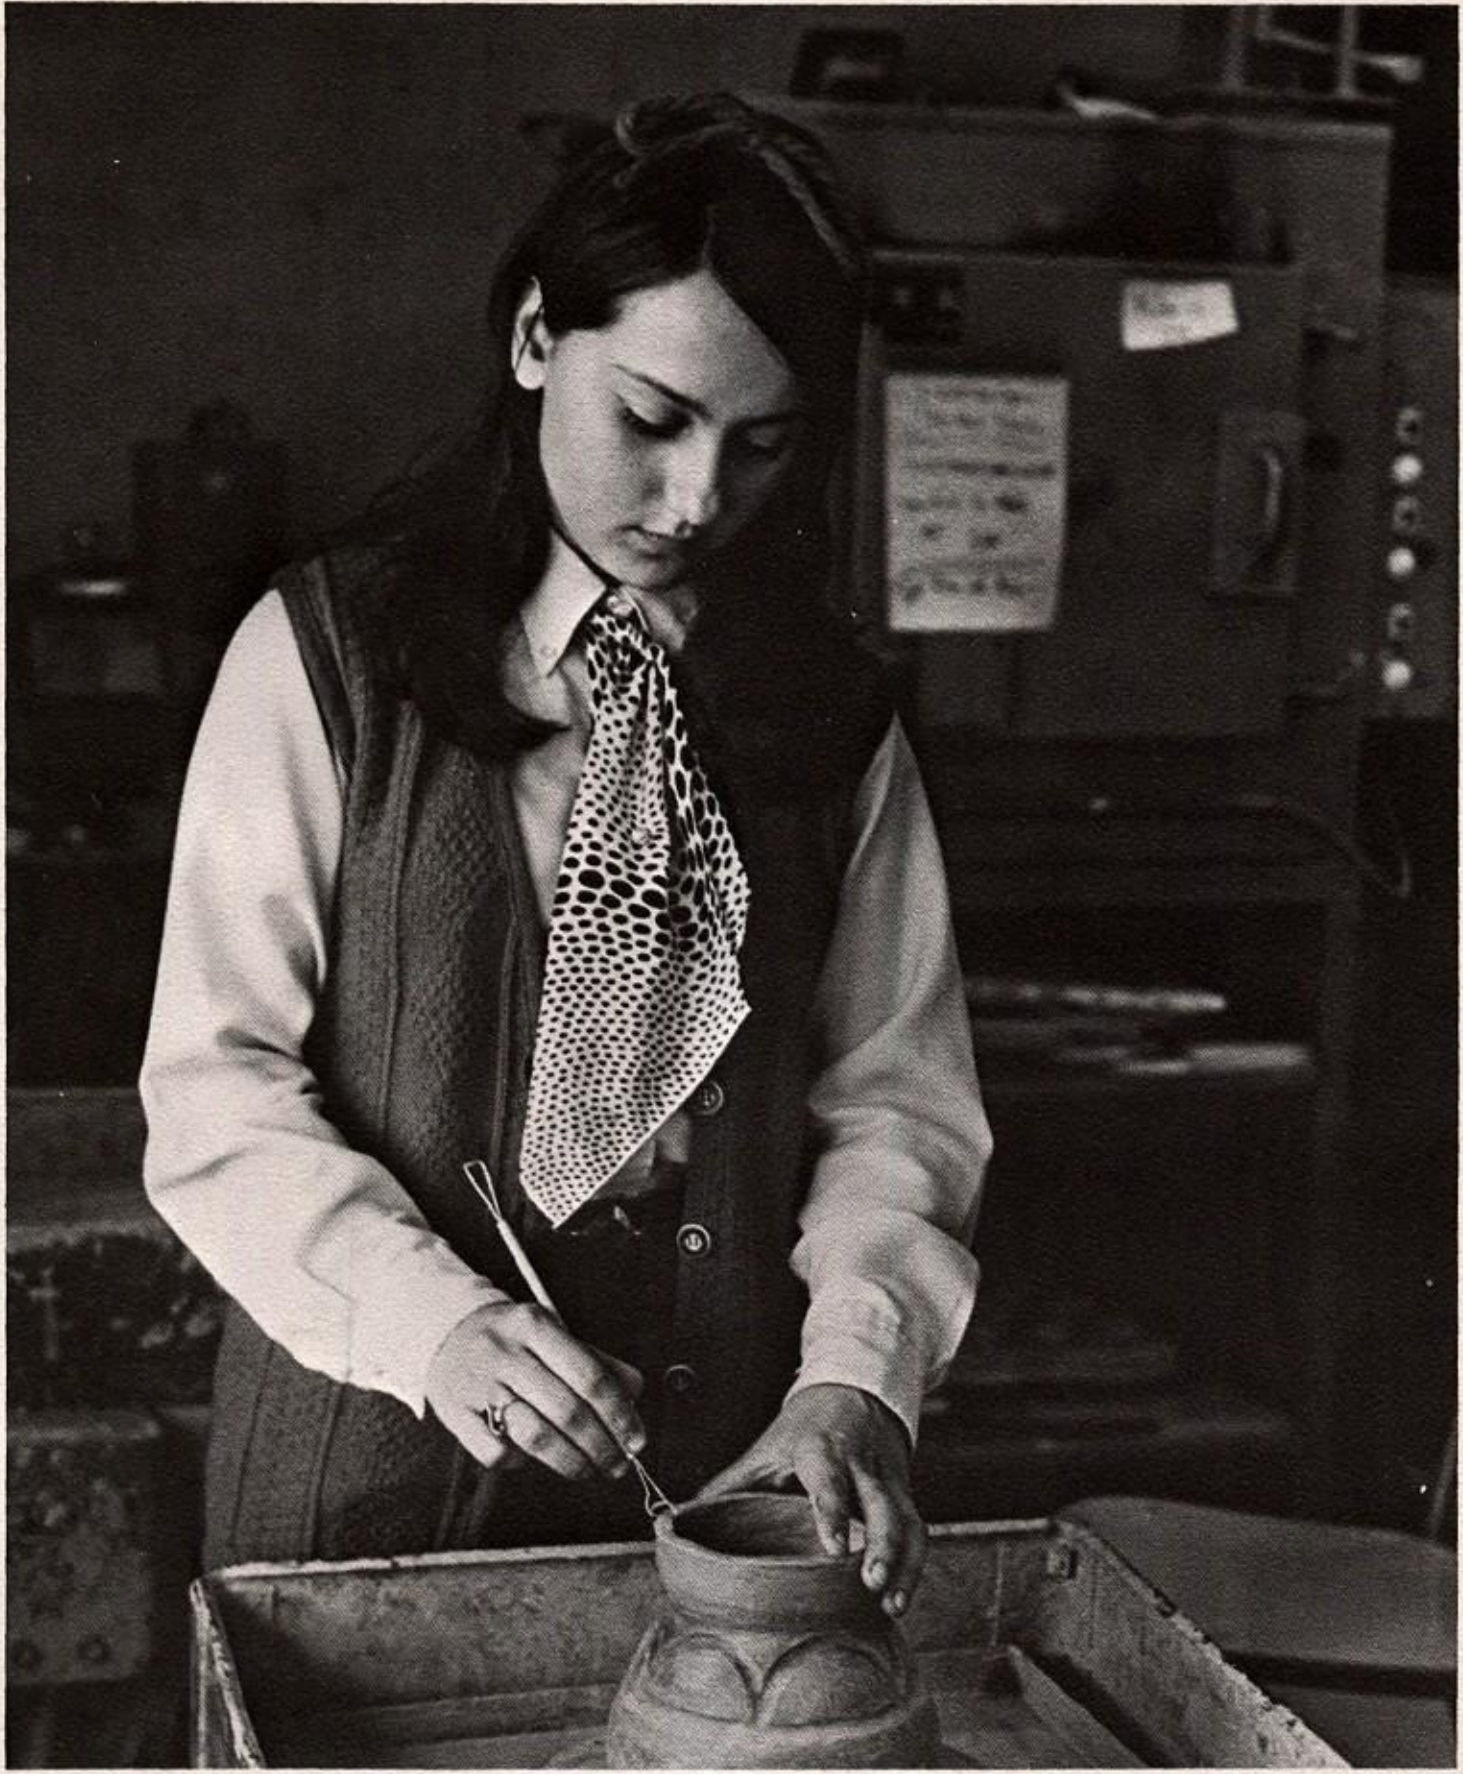

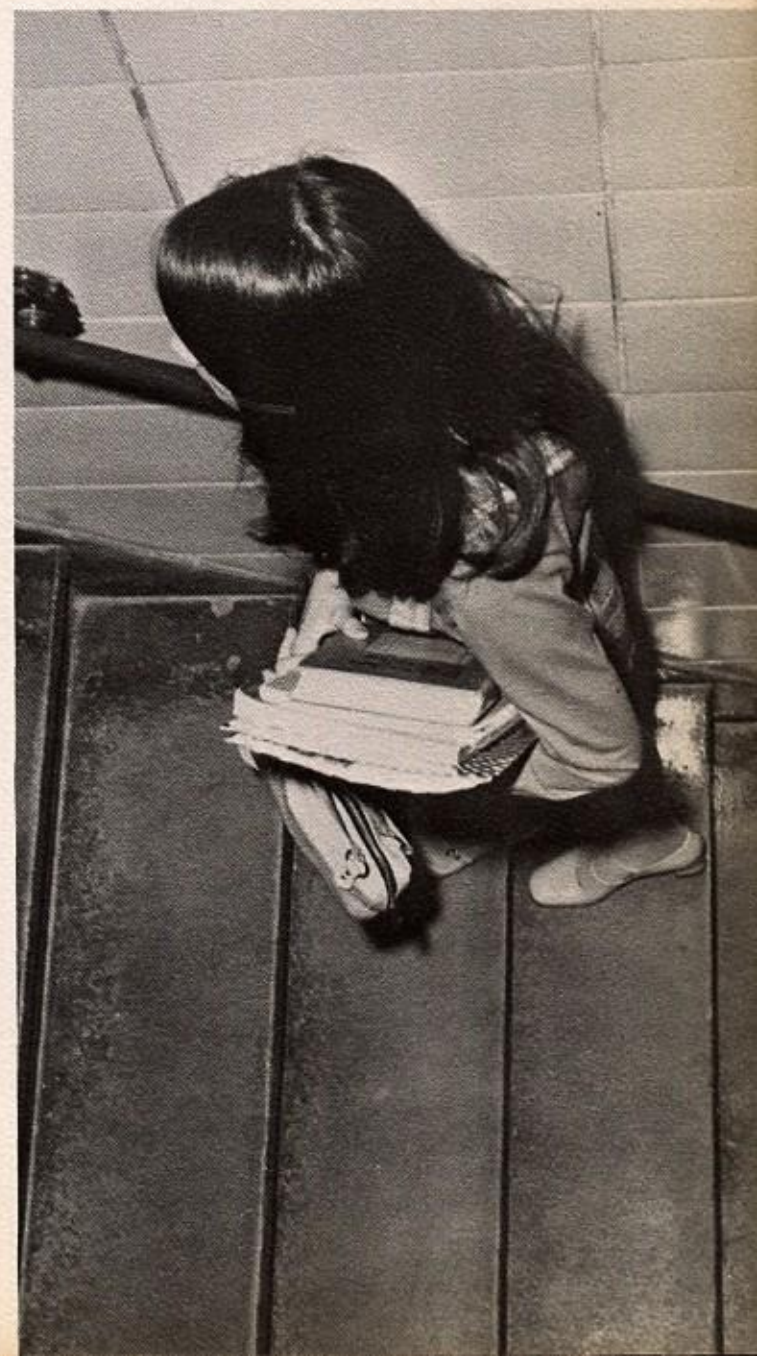

A man's work whether in music, painting or literature is always a portrait of himself.

Samuel Butler

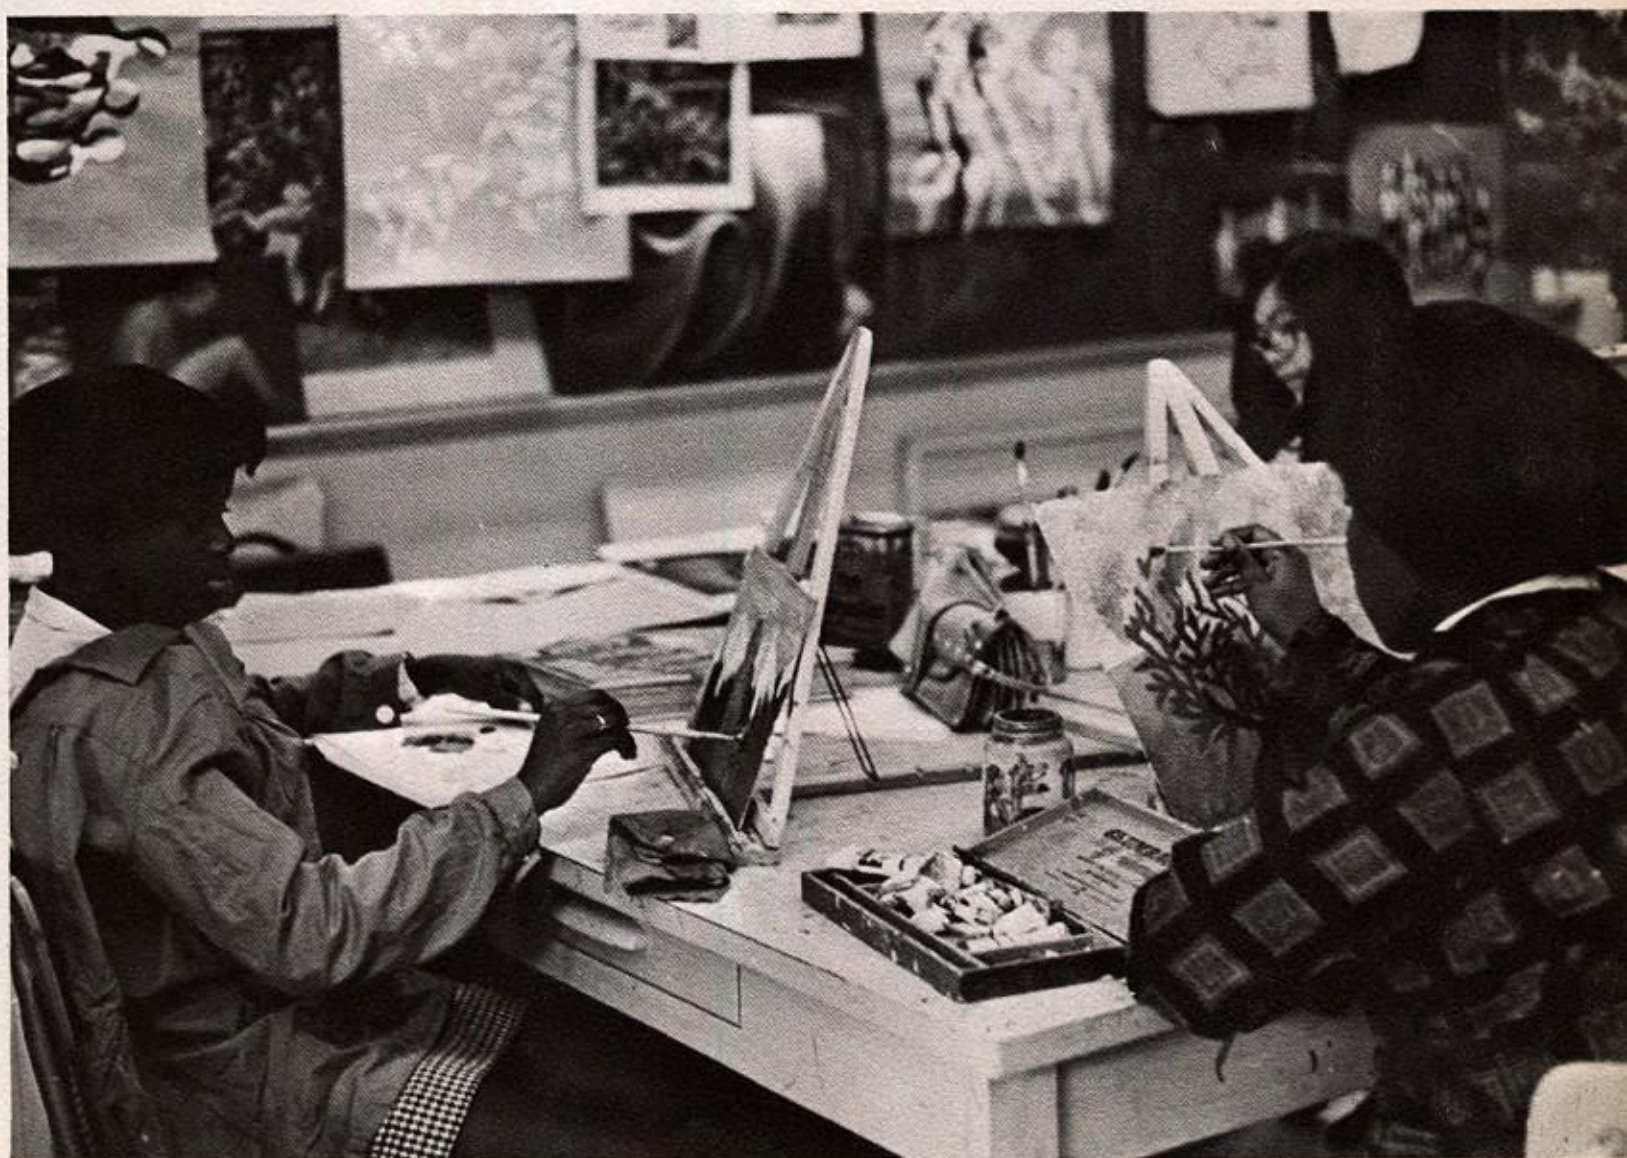

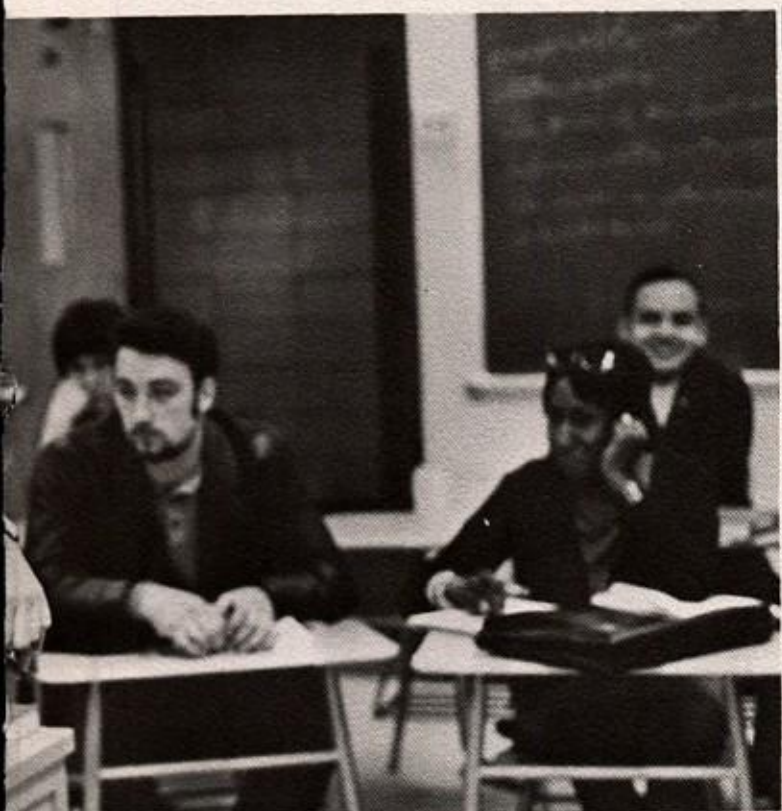

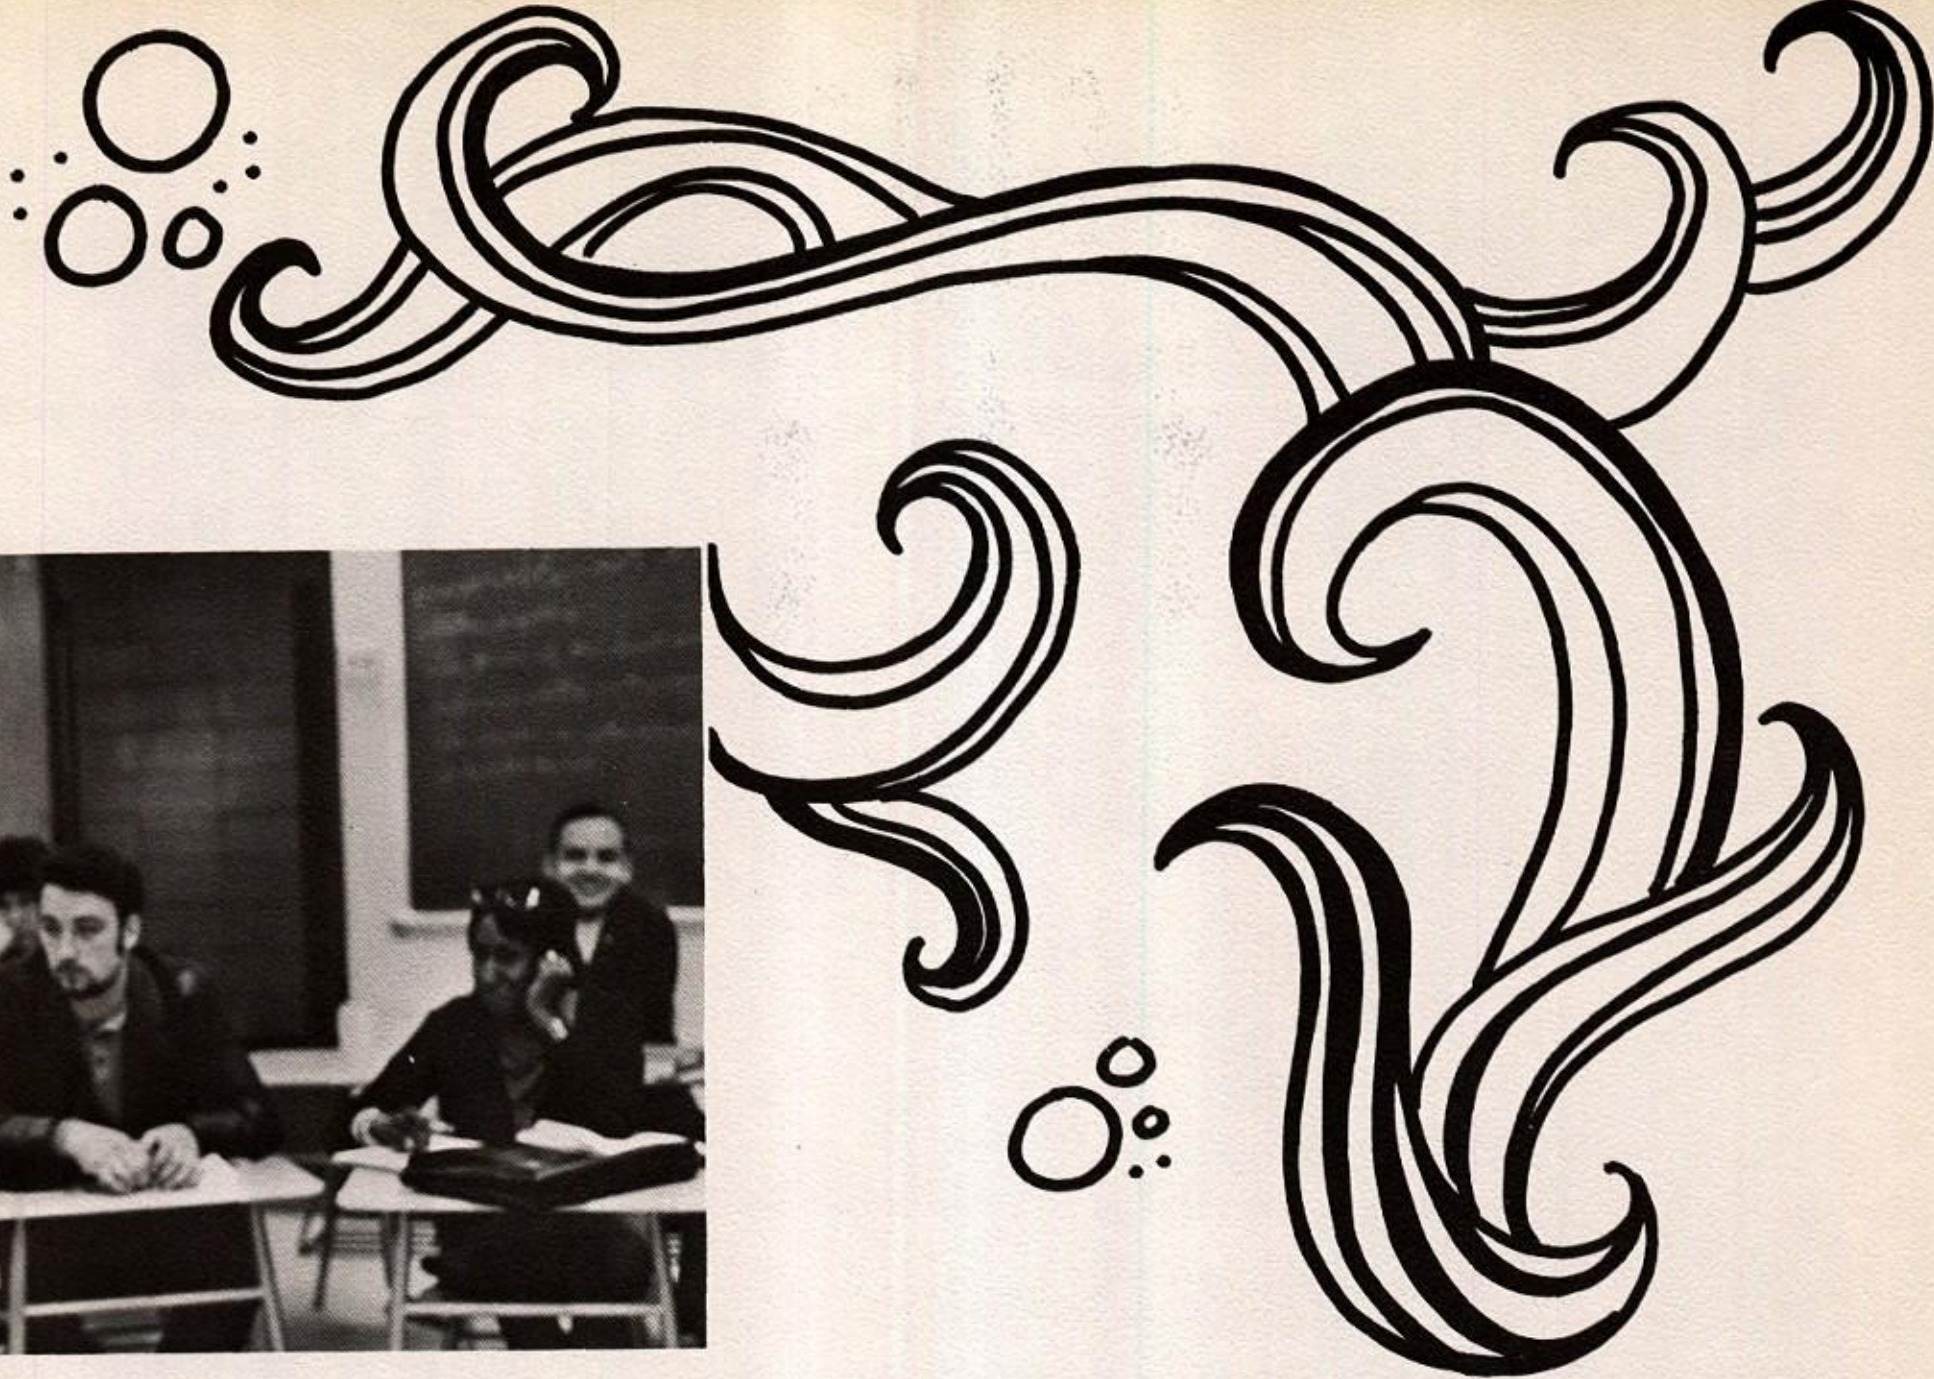

He who enjoys doing and enjoys what he has done is happy.

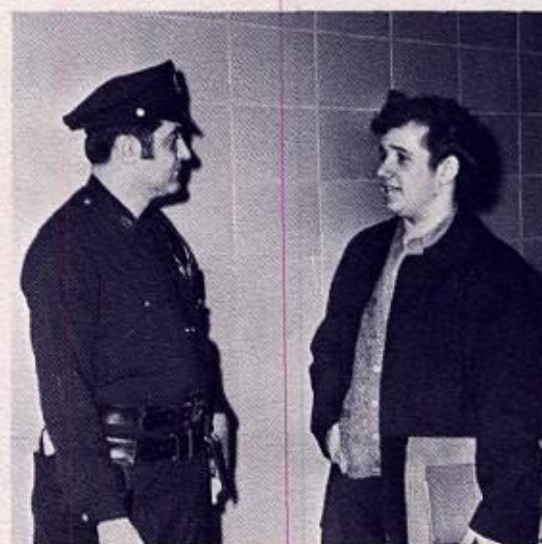

Goethe

Tell me what company thou keepest, and I'll tell thee what thou art.

Cervantes

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Emerson

No man can be wise on an empty stomach.

George Eliot

John Steinbeck saw that "in the souls of the people, the grapes of wrath are filing and growing heavy, growing heavy for vintage." And the conscience of America was shocked into an awareness of the suffering of helpless people. We dedicate our yearbook with pride to him, John Steinbeck, to his literature, and to his America-courageous, angry, and golden.

To the Class of June, 1969

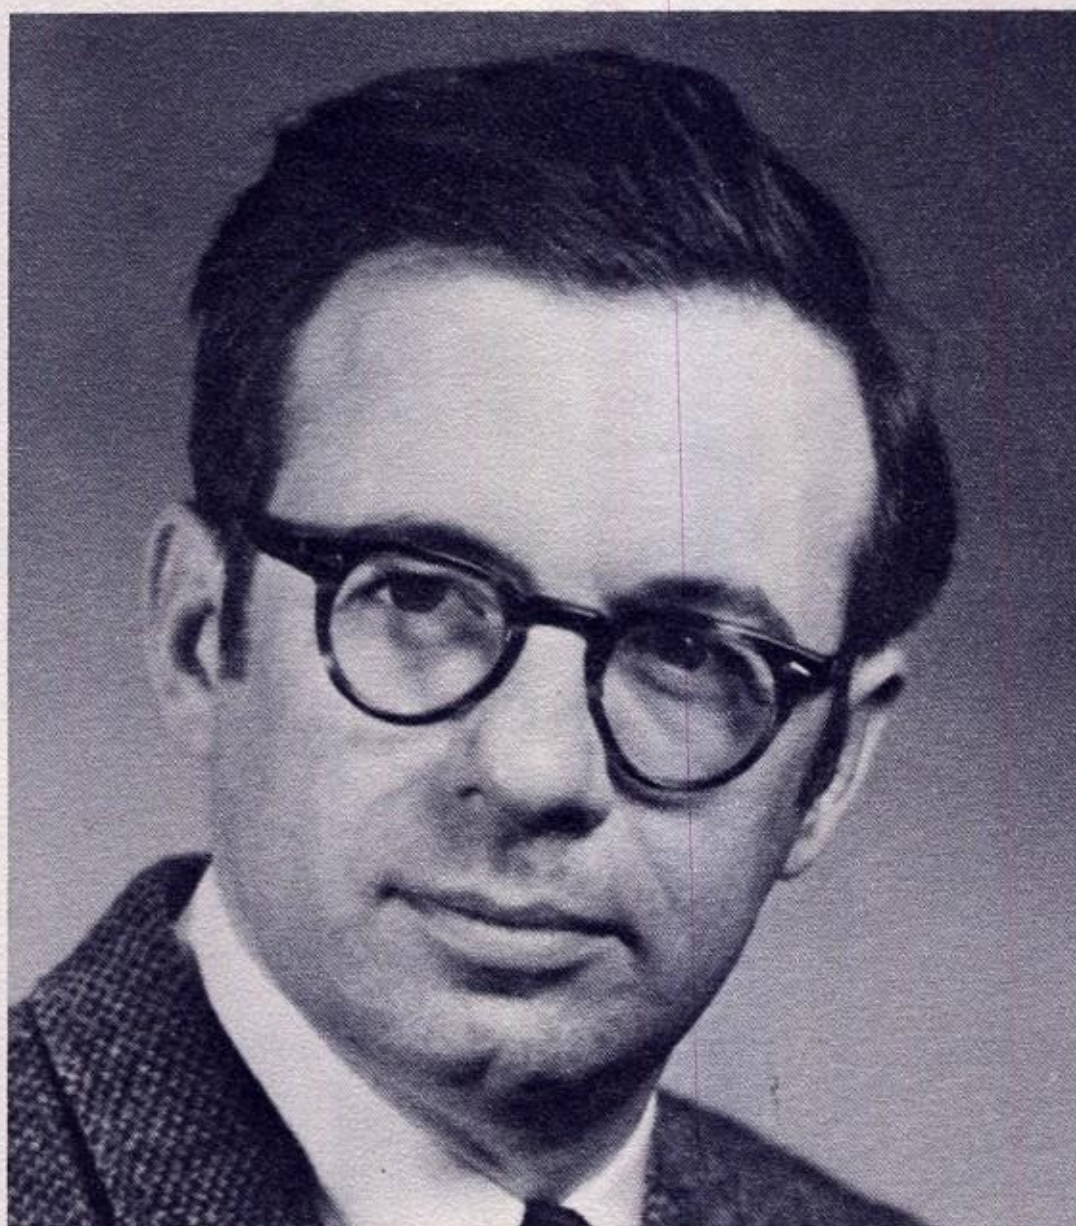

This is the last message I will write as Principal to a Bowne graduating class. When the class of 1970 makes ready for its commencement, I will have retired. The class of '69 is thus as special in my thoughts and feelings as was the class of '67 — Bowne's first.

From time to time, I have felt the "generation gap" but never more poignantly than now as your careers in the New York City public school system and mine both come to a close. Although both of us can enjoy retrospective views, yours, I hope, will be subsidiary to the intensity of hope and ambition and expectation to which you are so well entitled.

While I look back with pride and much satisfaction to the early years of Bowne, gratitude is the strongest of my feelings. The growth of Bowne as a school, its expanding enrichments of educational programs and the increasing stature of its achievements are the doing of those men and women of the faculty and staff whose magnificent contributions got Bowne off the ground. I owe an especial debt of gratitude to hundreds upon hundreds of Bownites, many in your class, whose active participation in discussion on school policy and practice helped all of us to set wiser goals and achieve more notable successes. You go with my heartfelt good wishes.

SING
*Sweetest the strain when in the song
 The singer has been lost.*
 E. S. Phelps

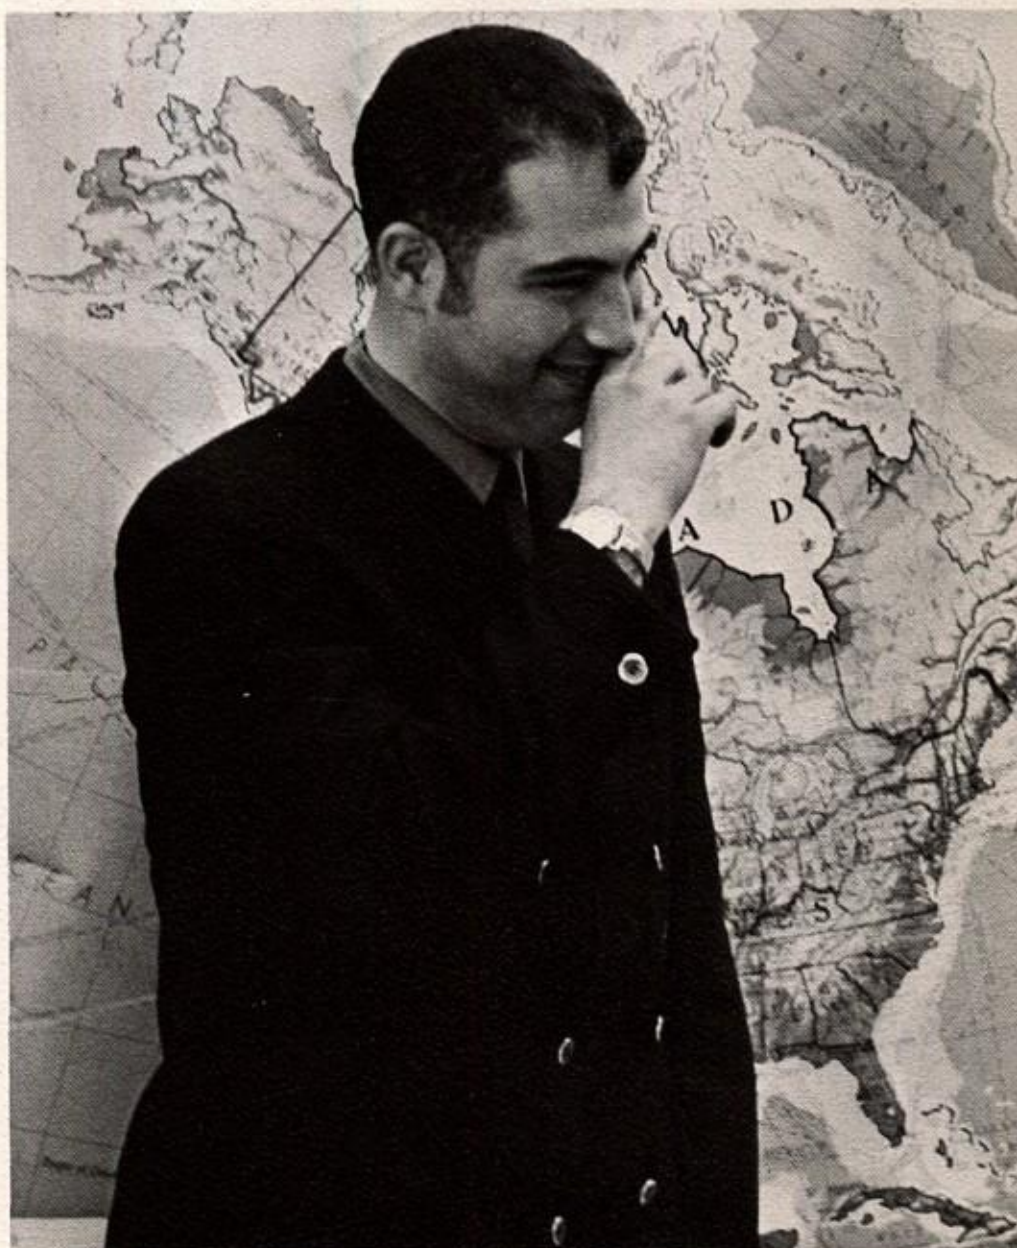

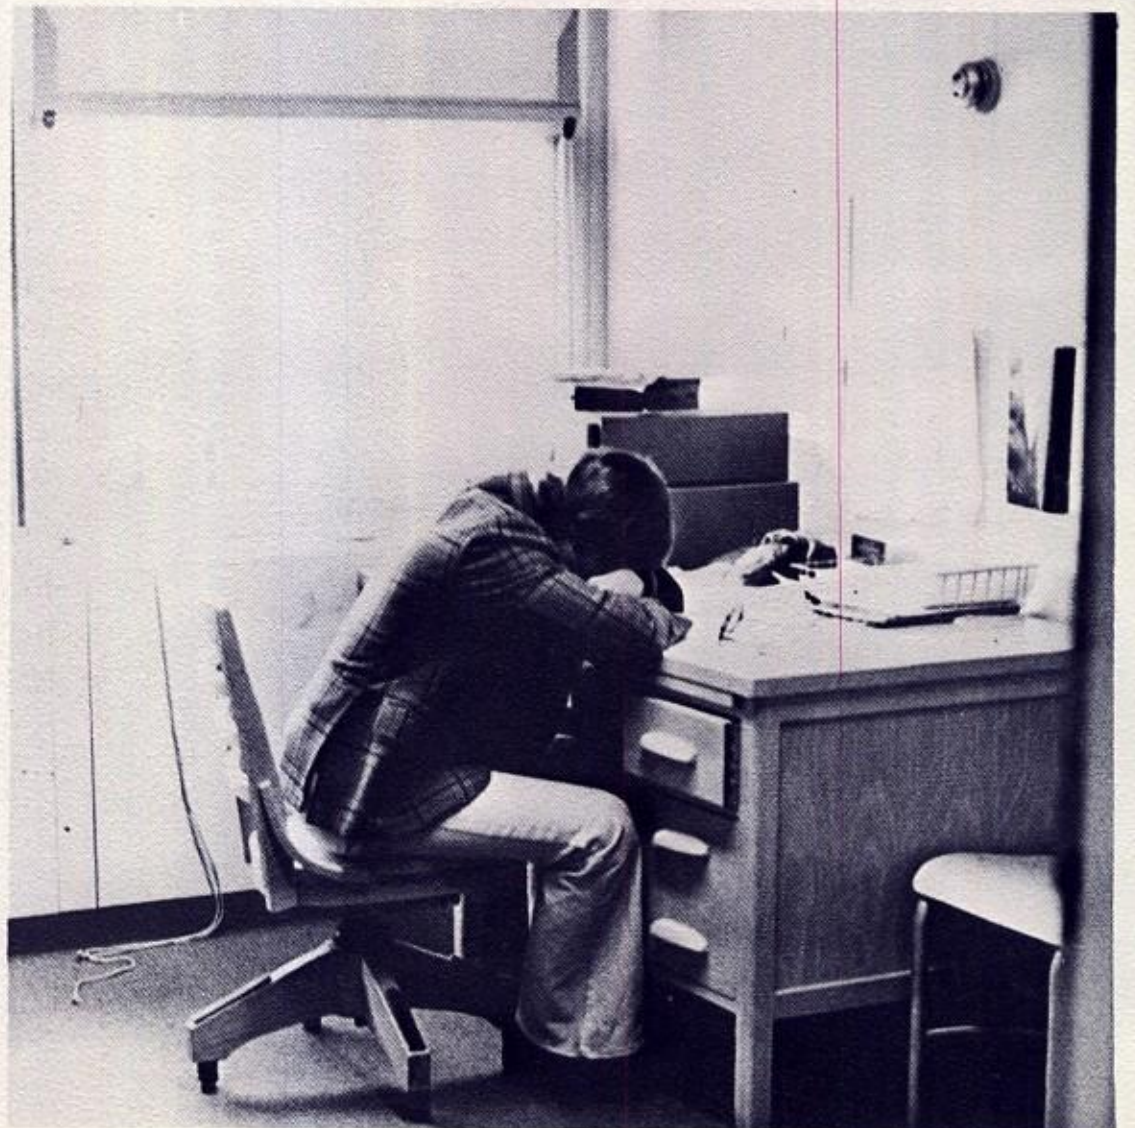

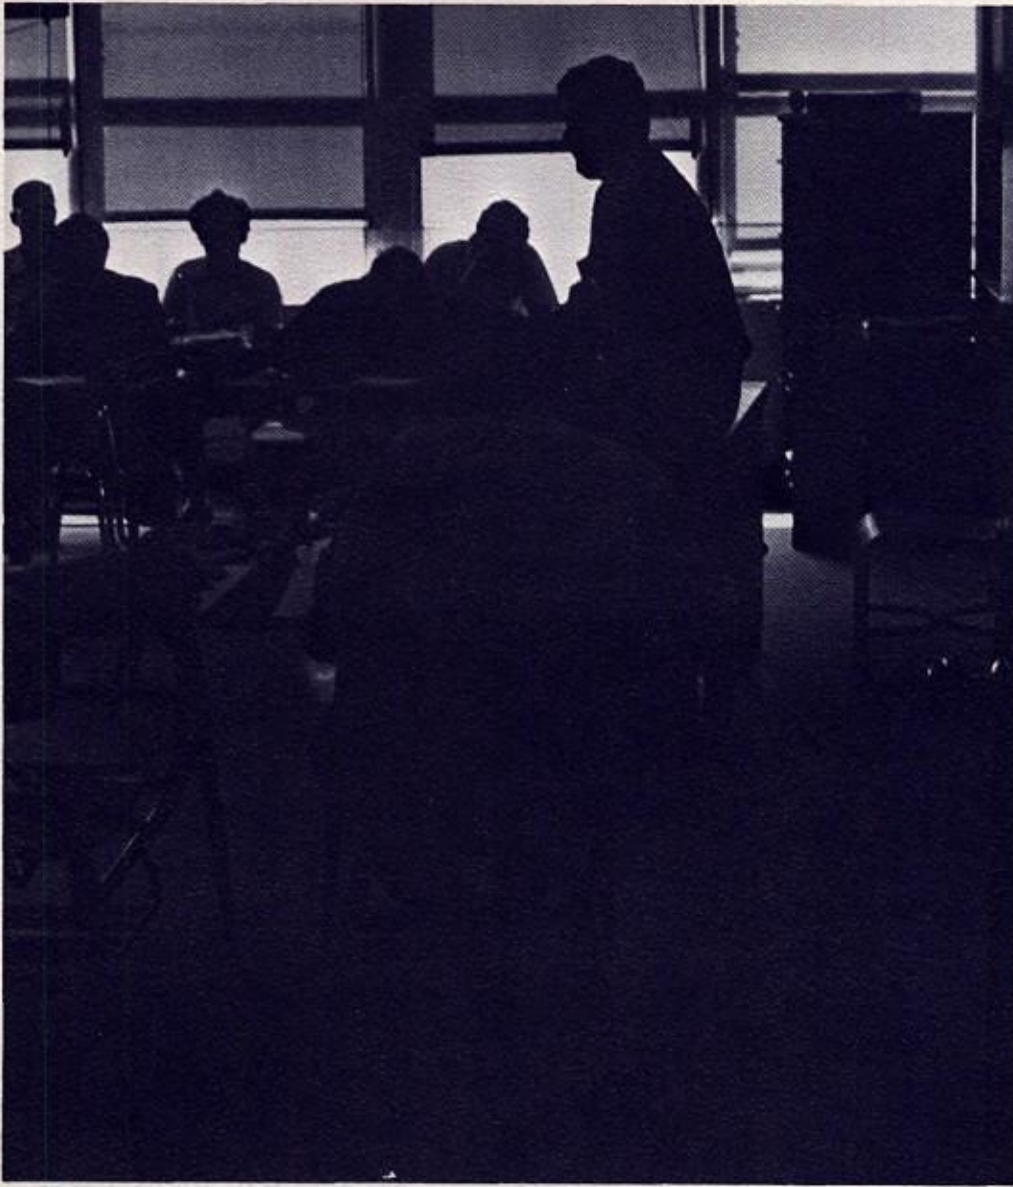

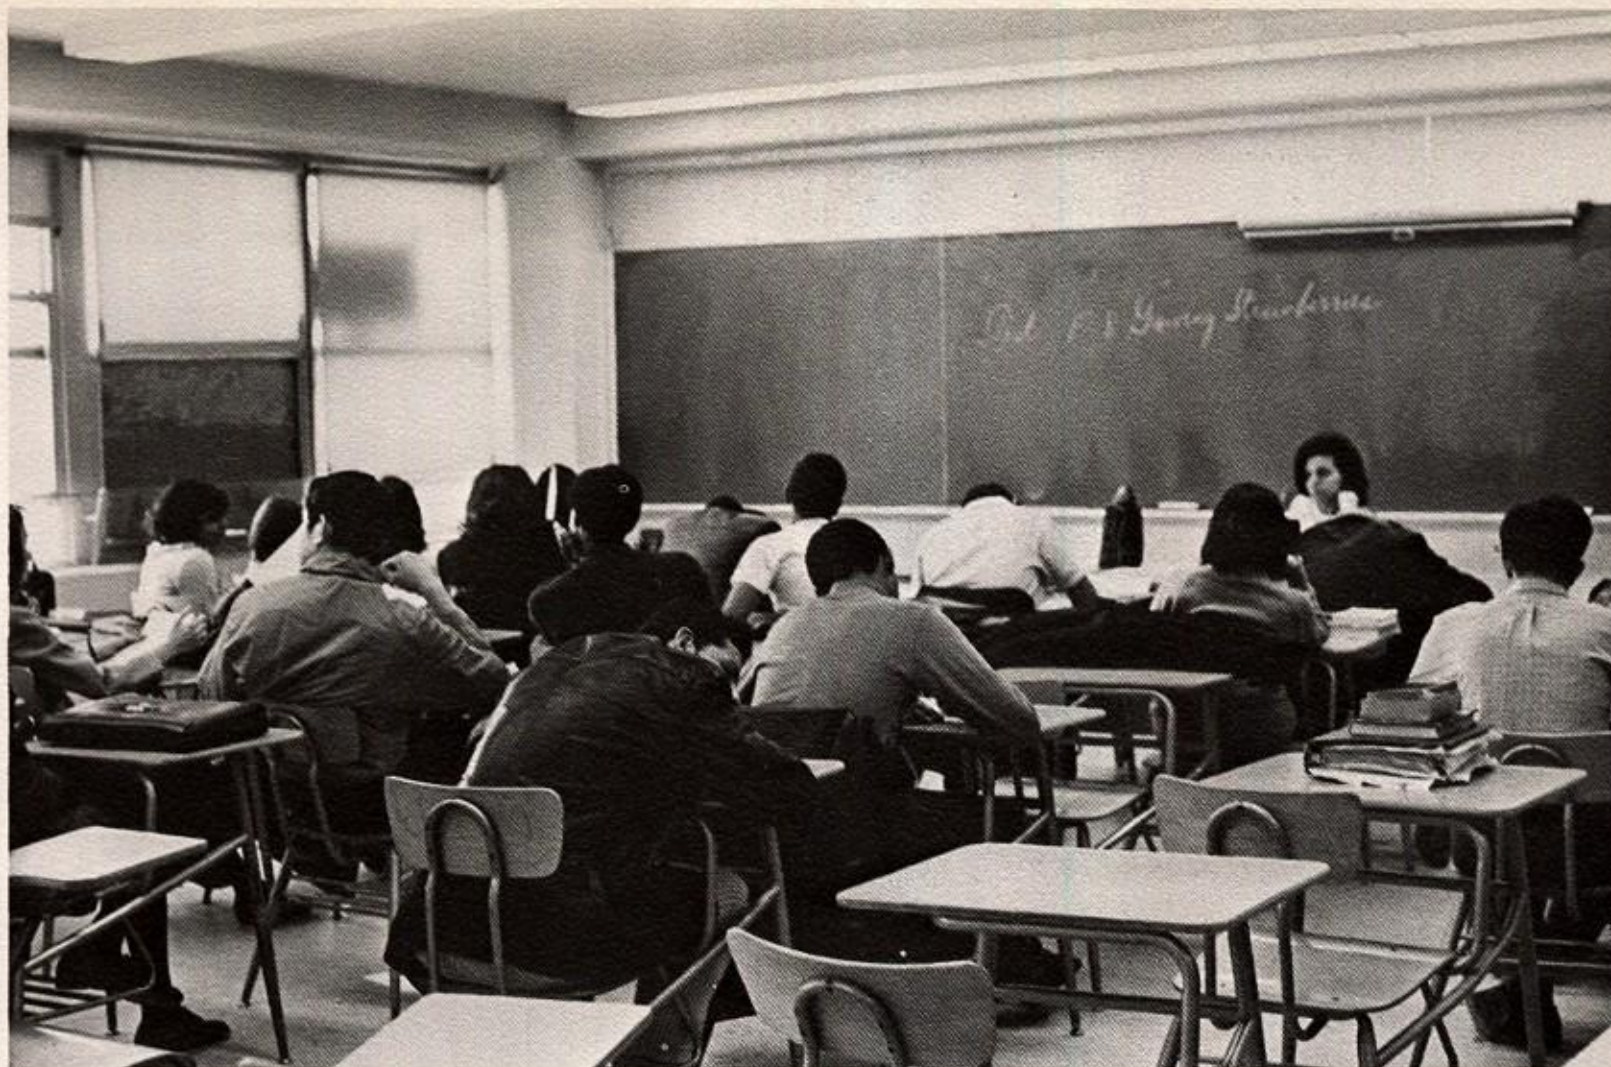

The most completely lost of all days is that on which one has not laughed.
Champort

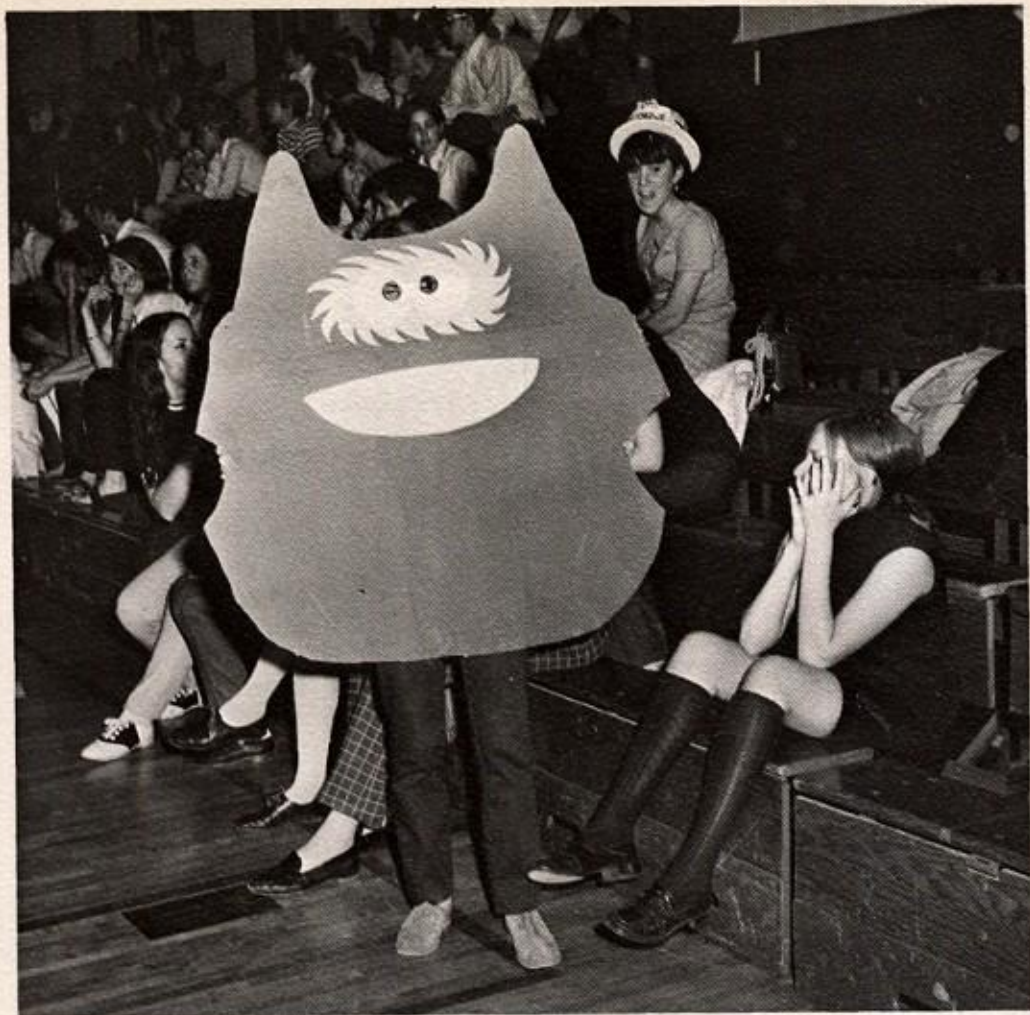

*Is this a dream?
Or if it be a dream,
Let me sleep on, and
do not wake me
yet.*

Longfellow

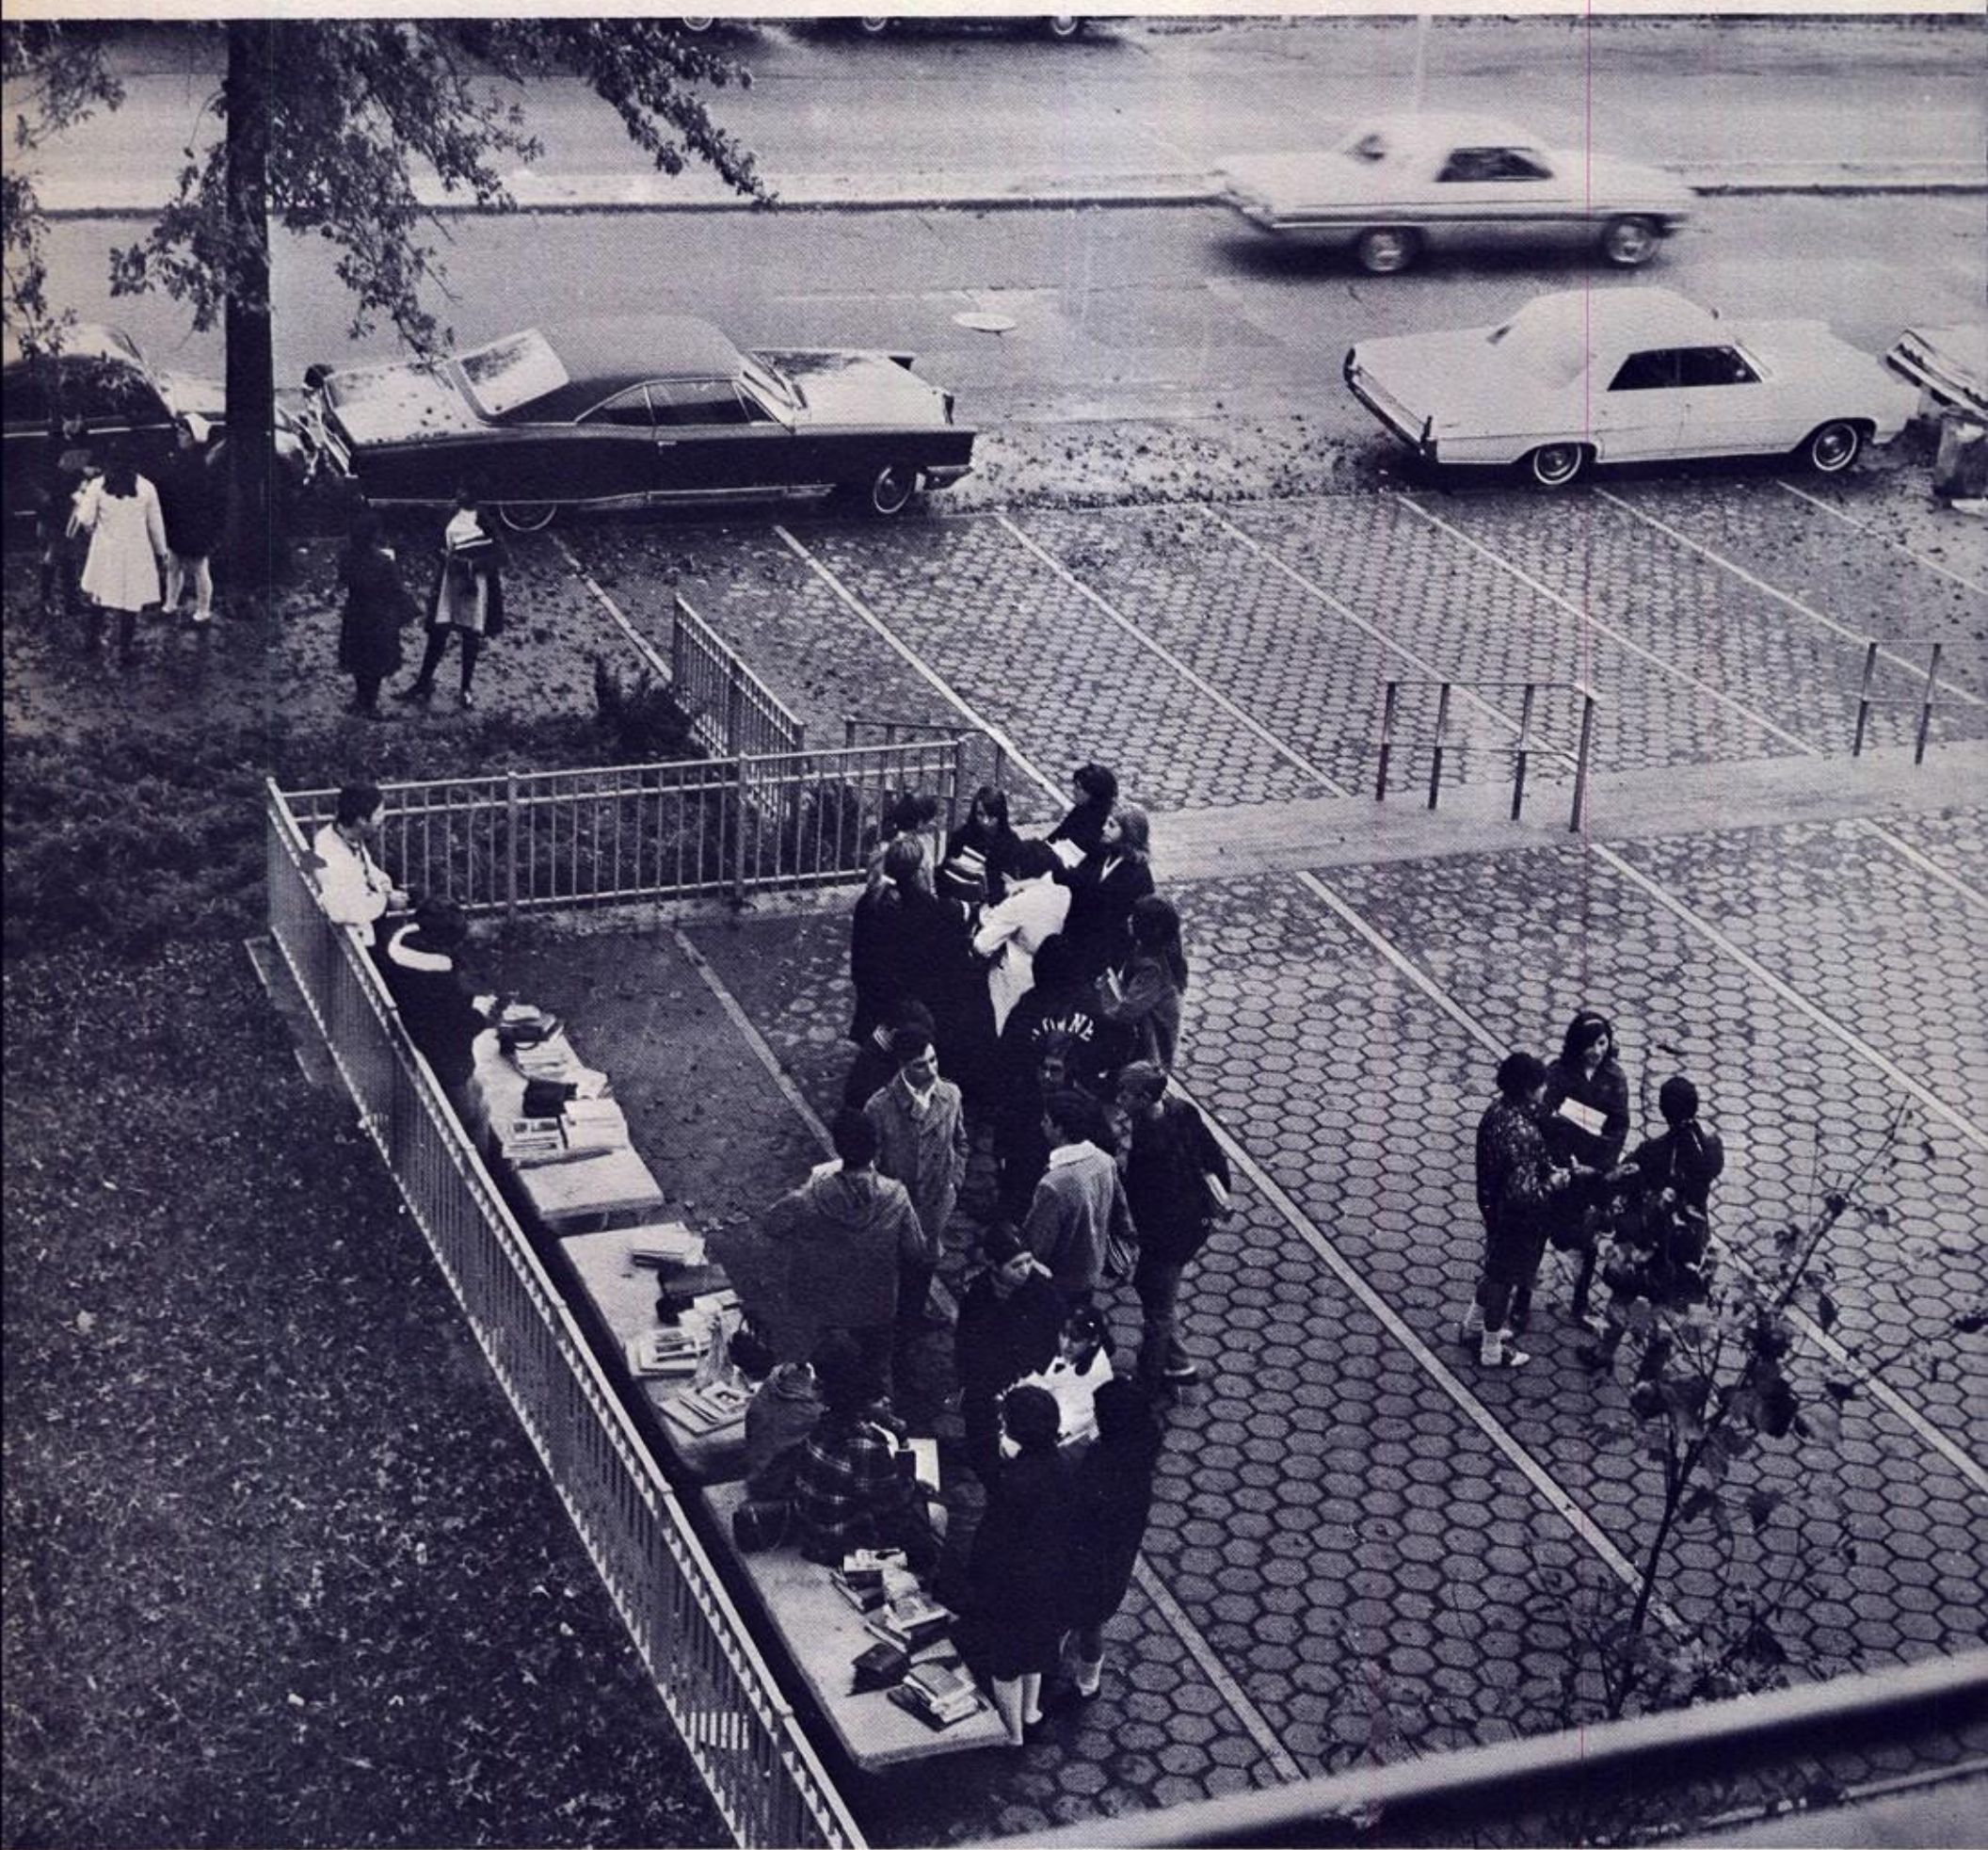

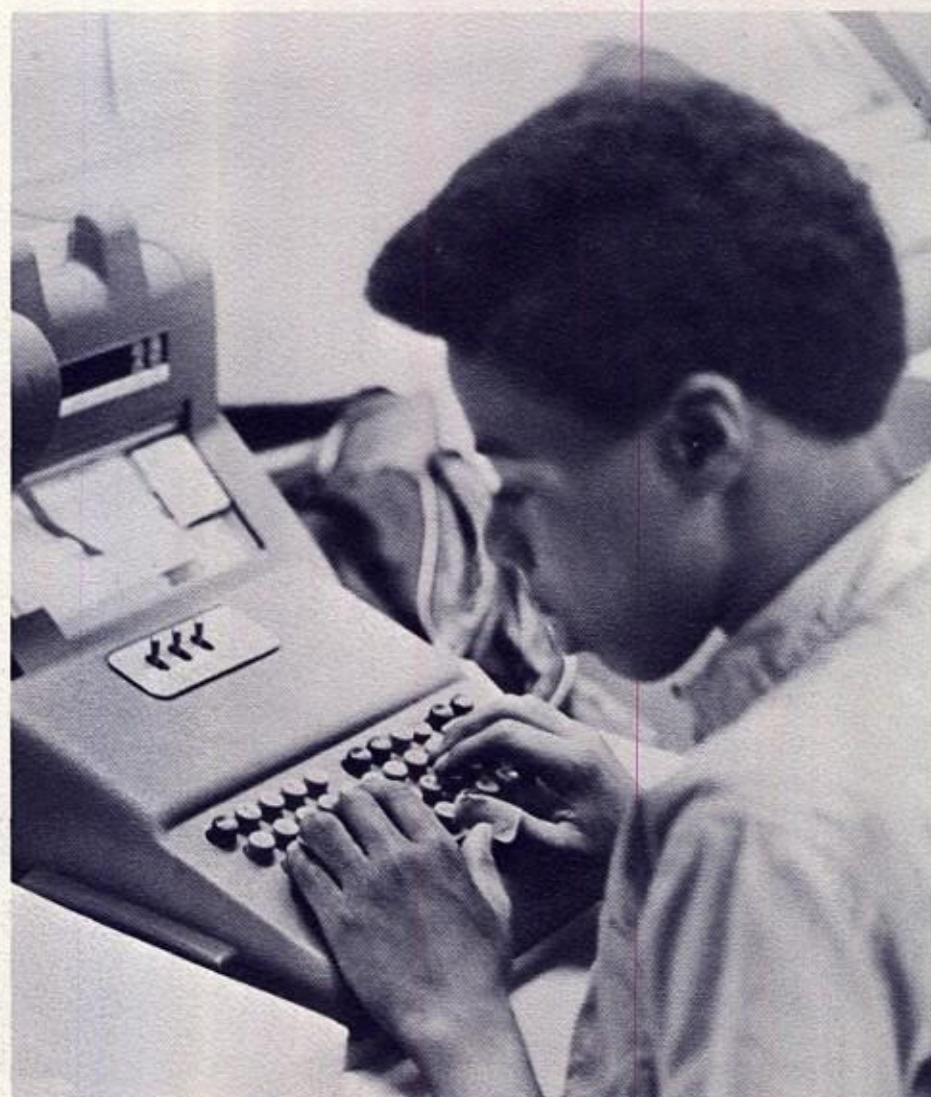

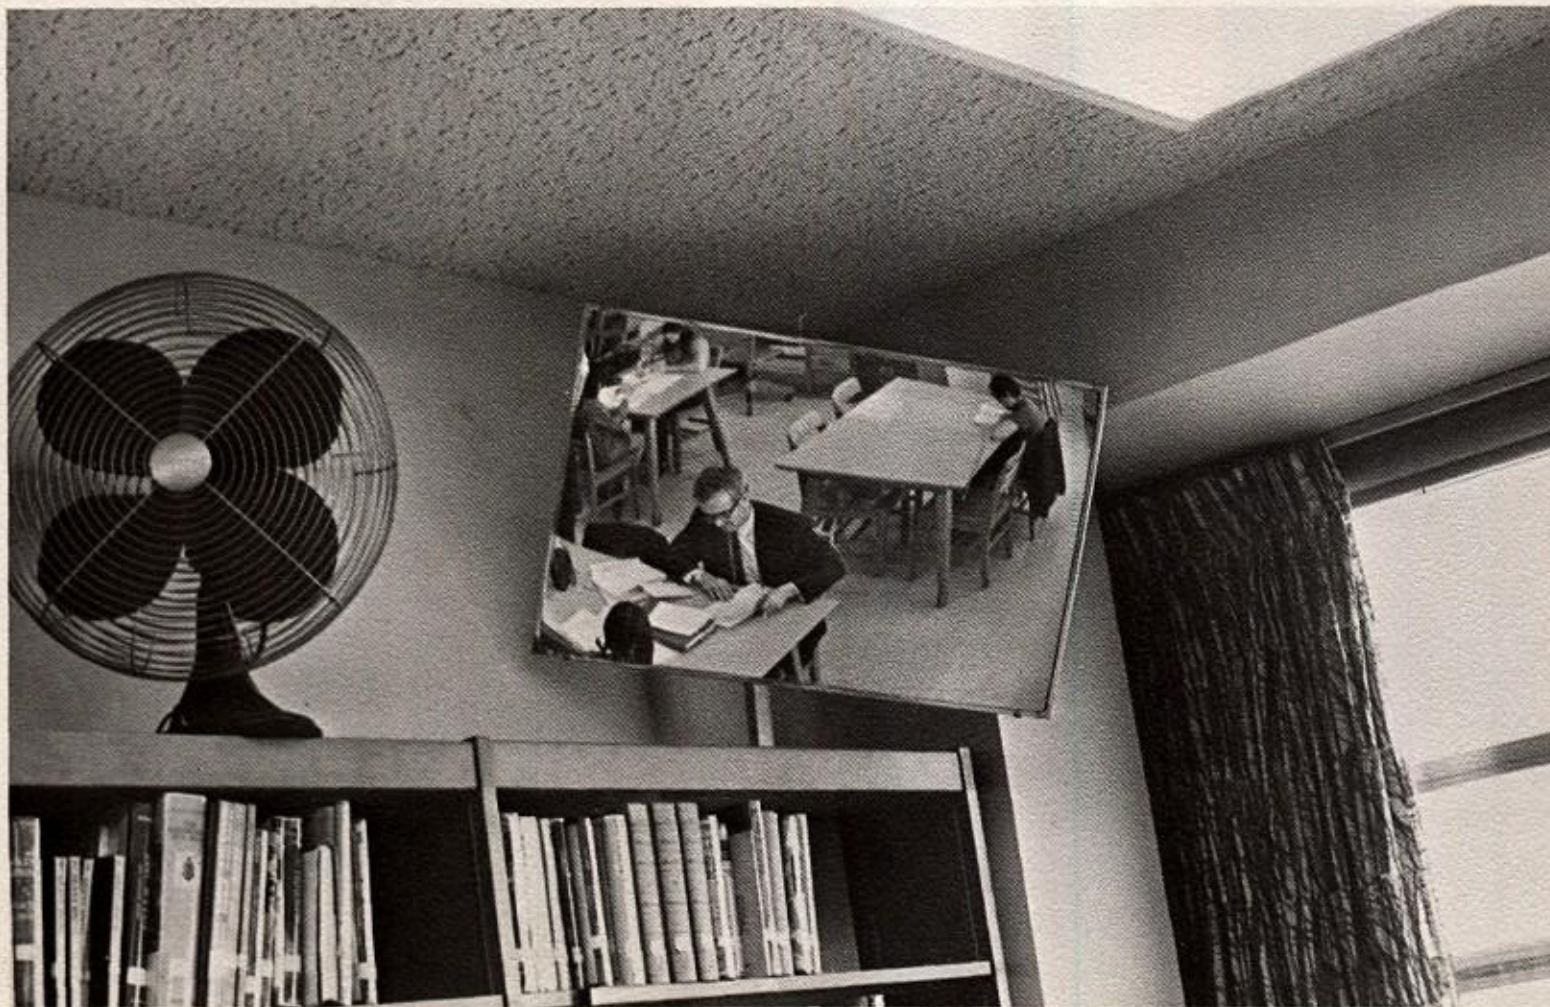

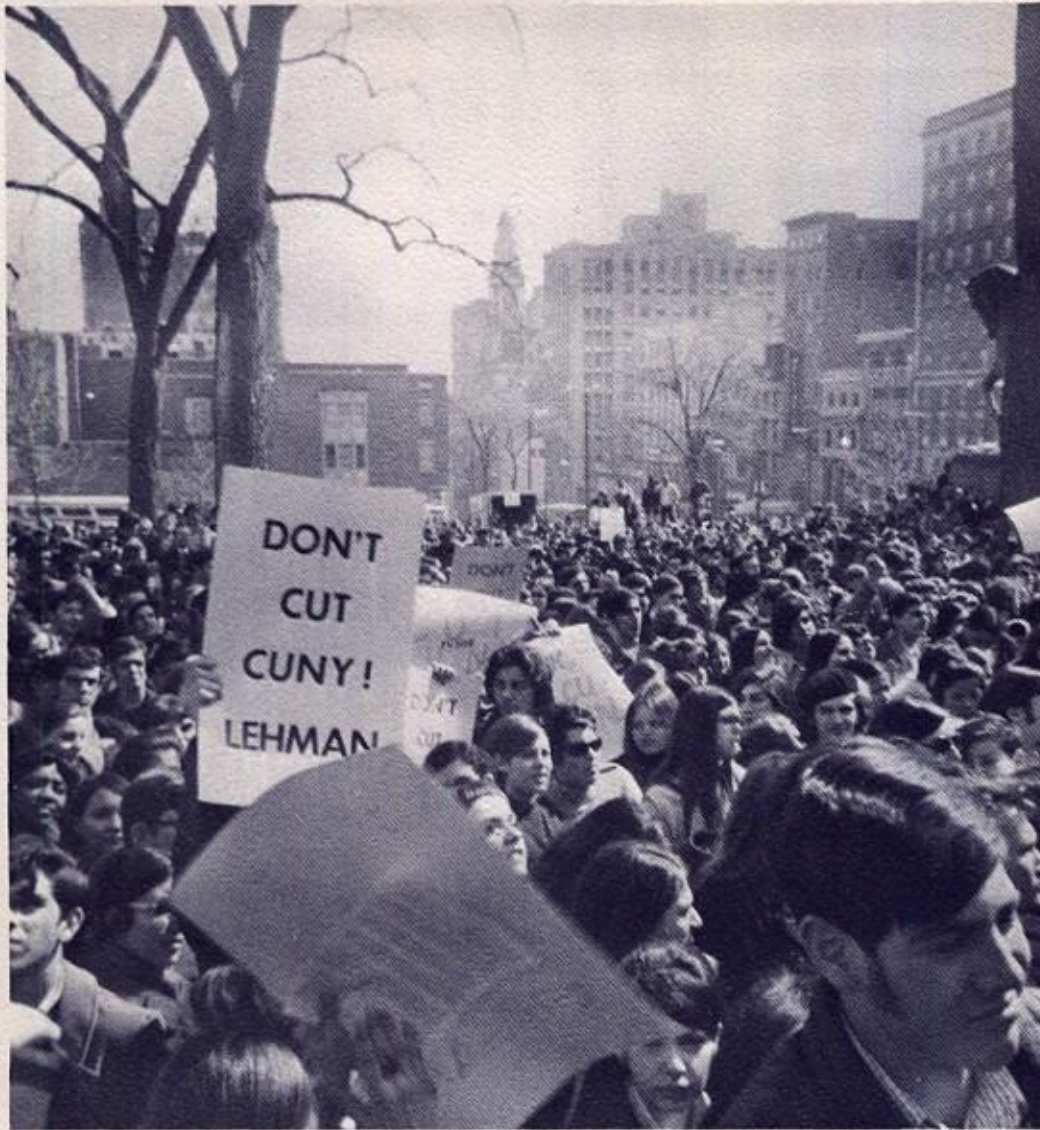

OUR TRIP

TO ALBANY
March 18, 1969

*Every man's nose will not make a shoe-horn.
Let us leave the world as it is.*

Cervantes

*Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.*
